

West Harlem Development Corporation
2014 Cycle 2 - Summary of Grant Awards by Category
Approved by Board on November 18, 2014

|   | Total $           | Total #   | Total CD 9 |                     |
|---|--------------------|-----------|-------------------|---------------------|
|   |                    |           | $         | Total CD 9 # |
| Community Facilities, including Art, and Environment    | $445,760          | 18        | $ 258,822        | 10                  |
| Education, including Art , and Historical Preservation  | $303,651          | 12        | $ 107,207        | 3                   |
| Workforce & Economic Development, including Environment | $250,589          | 8         | $ 84,839         | 3                   |
|   | -----              | -----     | -----             | -----               |
|   | $1,000,000 | 38 | $450,868  | 16           |
|   |                    |           | 45%               | 42%                 |

WHDC Grant Award Recipients

2014.C2

| Organization/(based in CD9-West Harlem)                           |   |              |   |  |  |
|---|---|--------------|---|--|--|
| Community FacilitiesA total of $445,760 for 18 organizations | Project Description   | Award Amount | Contact Person  | Email/Phone  | Address  |
| Aaron Davis Hall, Inc. / Harlem Stage                             | Harlem Stage Education and Community Outreach - Harlem Stage will enhance and advance the academic/educational lives of students in two partner schools; PS161 and A. Philip Randolph High School – both located in and serving MCD9, and deepen services to MCD9 neighbors by reconvening a Community Advisory Committee in FY15 for the development of new community engagement strategies.                              | $37,051     | Andrew NavaretteDevelopment Manager of Institutional Giving | anavarette@harlemstage.org212-281-9240 ext. 16 | 150 Convent Ave, New York, NY 10031              |
| African Hope Committee, Inc.                                      | The ROSE IMMIGRATION PROGRAM will empower immigrants in the West Harlem Community of District 9 and around the New York City areas. Funding will help expand on education, community outreach, and services to the major immigrant groups living in MCD9 , providing them with the necessary supports for achieving self-sufficiency.   | $33,304     | Clarisse Mefotso Fall, Executive Director                       | korkajarry@aol.com212-862-9010                         | 441 convent Ave.suite 4D NY,NY 10031             |
| Artistic Dreams International                                     | Strengthening and Expansion in West Harlem - Funding will help ADI strengthen its staff, methodology, and replicate the visual arts program at a new MCD9 school . This includes introducing their international chorus program in the form of an afterschool program at one school. ADI will also aim to increase the number of public and performance events in MCD9 through exhibitions, auctions & choral performances.       | $29,599     | Lillian Alonzo-Marin, Artistic Director                         | lillian@artisticdreams.org212-380-8441         | P.O. Box 89 NY, NY 10027                         |
| CASES   | CASES Harlem - CASES is a leading provider of alternatives to incarceration and behavioral health services for those who have become involved in the criminal justice system. Funding will help increase the availability of services for MCD9's at-risk populations, including youth, the formerly incarcerated, and people with mental illness.   | $33,929     | Loyal Miles, Director of Development                            | lmiles@cases.org212-553-6354                             | 2090 Adam Clayton Powell, Jr. Blvd. NY, NY 10027 |
| CONNECT, Inc.   | Violence Prevention Community Groups - CONNECT is dedicated to ending interpersonal violence and promoting gender equity . Funding will support four CD9 community programs: 1) Monthly Men's Roundtable; 2) Monthly Women's Circle; 3) Community Dialogues for men & women; 4) Monthly Interfaith Roundtable for people of all faiths. The expansion of these 4 forums is aimed to engage approximately 60-80 West Harlem youth. | $19,483     | Quentin WalcottCo-Executive Director                        | qwalcott@connectnyc.org212-683-0015, ext. 225     | 127 West 127 th St. NY, NY 10027      |
|   |   |              |   |  |  |

WHDC Grant Award Recipients

2014.C2

|  |  |          |  |  |   |
|--|--|----------|--|--|---|
| Harlem Cultural Archives                   | Manhattan Community District 9 (West Harlem) Oral History Project - This initiative will consist of the preservation of noteworthy accomplishments of individuals and institutions of MCD9 in the form of an online repository of oral history video interviews. The repository will become an invaluable educational resource for residents, academic institutions and community-based organizations of MCD9. Public screenings of these audio-visual materials will be held in MCD9.               | $14,321 | Glenn A. Hunter,Co-ExecutiveDirector                       | harlemculturalarchives@gmail.com917 817-4993 | 2300 FifthAve.Suite 2NY, NY 10037     |
| Harlem Opera Theater, Inc.                 | Funding will support the Opera in Harlem 2015 Season of concerts and operatic presentations in Harlem and MCD9 including the 13th Annual Salute to Black History Month; a Harlem Renaissance opera ( Voodoo ) by African American composer Harry Lawrence Freeman; the 5th Vocal Competition for classical singers ages 18-35, the presentation of the works of African-Russian composer, Alexander Pushkin; A Holiday Community Sing with the audience joining singers in traditional music. | $13,655 | Carol Brown,Board Secretary                                    | harlemoperatheater@gmail.com212-592-0780         | 425 W. 144th St.NY, NY 10031              |
| Harlem Pride                               | Harlem Community Pride Center Initiative – To support the establishment of a central hub for the dissemination of information and the provision of services to the Same Gender Loving, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and same-gender-loving (SGL/LGBT) community of the Greater Harlem area. A community pride center would allow the continuation, in collaboration with other entities, and delivery of services to MCD9 residents.  | $32,472 | Carmen Neely,Board President                                   | info@harlempride.org347-846-0362                         | P.O. Box 157NY, NY 10037                  |
| Lifeforce in Later Years, Inc.             | Funding will support LiLY's Eldercare Village Coordination program at Morningside Village, including an increase of 15% of the number of seniors served. This volunteer based community initiative helps older seniors to live comfortably in their own homes as they age.   | $21,356 | Irene Zola,Executive Director                                  | irenezola@L-i-L-Y.org917-775-1199                       | P.O. Box 250402NY, NY 10025               |
| Manhattan Legal Services                   | West Harlem Youth Legal Advocacy Project – Will provide West Harlem youth with essential free legal services in the areas of education, immigration, benefits, and employment. The goal will be to help at risk youth obtain success by improving employment and educational outcomes; stopping the school-to-prison pipeline; creating safer, more stable neighborhoods; and spurring economic development for the community as a whole.  | $32,264 | Peggy Earisman,Project DirectorManhattan LegalServices | pearisman@mls.lsnyc.org646-442-3142                   | 1 W.125th Street2nd FloorNY, NY 10027 |
| Morningside Retirement and Health Services | The Cluster Care Project will deliver health and home care services to elderly residents of Morningside Gardens who have sustained health or cognitive impairments.  | $22,106 | Ronald Bruno,Executive Director                                | ronb@mrhsny.org212-666-4000                                   | 100 La Salle St.#MCNY, NY10027        |
| National Dance Institute                   | NDI's West Harlem Gateway to the Arts project will provide children in MCD9 with greater access to the transformative power of the arts. NDI's unique programs will engage these children through their active participation in dance and the arts.  | $19,483 | Kathy Landau,Executive Director                                | klandau@nationaldance.org(212) 226-0083             | 217 W147th St.NY, NY 10039                |

WHDC Grant Award Recipients

2014.C2

|   |   |              |  |  |  |
|---|---|--------------|--|--|--|
| New York African Chorus Ensemble Inc.                  | Transformation Through the Arts - Funding will support the 2015 Gathering concert and NYC's Multicultural Festival. These programs aim to provide a better quality of life, increased economic opportunities, and will foster positive police-community relations in MCD9 . Funds will also help increase NYACE's capacity to track data as they contribute to sustaining a vibrant community in West Harlem.                           | $7,794      | Joyce Adewumi,President                                  | joyce@nyafricanensemble.com212-862-4858     | 515 W.151st St.Suite 2WNY, NY 10031                  |
| Northern Manhattan Arts Alliance                              | Funds will support the extension of the 2015 Uptown Arts Stroll below 155 Street, an annual community-wide showcase for the arts, artists, and rich cultural venues throughout Upper Manhattan . NoMAA will work with artists and institutions in MCD9 to develop activities that represent and celebrate the community's diversity and creativity.   | $27,143     | Sandra Garcia-Betancourt,Executive Director & CEO        | sgbetancourt@nomaa.nyc.org212 568 4396       | 178 Bennett Ave,Third FloorNY, NY 10040              |
| NYC Kidsfest  | Funding will enhance NYC Kidsfests' community engagement efforts by allowing them to involve more school children and MCD9 artists in performances and launch a broader campaign to market NYC Kidsfest citywide, aiding in the revitalization of MCD9 as a cultural destination.   | $7,843      | Jessica Chornesky  | jessica@nyckidsfest.org646-683-2454             | 61 Lenox Ave#5ANY, NY 10026                          |
| The Fortune Society                                    | Intergenerational Multi-Media Project at Castle Gardens – This project builds upon The Fortune Society first WHDC grant based at Castle Gardens in MCD9, which supported the CEPS Enhancement Project and its Multi-Media Production Workshop. The next phase will allow a greater reach to more at-risk populations of all ages culminating in a West Harlem Film Festival featuring films produced by students and local filmmakers . | $36,843     | Jill Poklemba,Senior Director of Grant Development       | jpoklemba@fortunesociety.org347-510-3613   | 630 Riverside Driveat 140th StreetNew York, NY 10031 |
| Upper Manhattan Mental Health Center, Inc.             | One Stop Access to Health/Behavior Health Services for Food Pantry Participants at Upper Manhattan Mental Health Center will partner with The Red Cross, Heritage Health and Housing and United Way, to provide ready access to food pantry participants for on-site health and behavior health services .  | $27,890     | Neelam PanT,Controller                                   | Npant@bowencsc.org212-694-9200                       | 1727 Amsterdam AvenueNY, NY 10031                        |
| West Harlem Art Fund                                   | Under the Viaduct – An art intervention series under the 12th Avenue viaduct during the months of May, July and October in 2015. This series will comprise of multiple art forms -- sound, dance, street and digital art that will be presented by individuals and collective groups. Most exciting will be the use of technology to broaden community engagement, enhance cultural tourism, and re-interpret public space in MCD9 .    | $29,224     | Savona Bailey-McClain,Executive Director & Chief Curator | westharlemartfund12@gmail.com347-365-0132 | P.O. Box 2179NY, NY 10027                                |
| EducationA total of $303,651 for 12 organizations | Project Description   | Award Amount | Contact Person   | Email/Phone  | Address  |
| African Voices Communications                                 | Get Your Read On! will provide students at Wadleigh HS of Performing & Visual Arts with a chance to create their own short stories and write a three act play. Students will learn play writing and set design to strengthen reading and math skills while teachers will be trained to evaluate the impact the program is having on students' success and progress.   | $16,627     | Carolyn A. Butts,Executive Director                      | africanvoicesmag@gmail.com212-865-2982       | 270 W 96th St.NY, NY 10025                               |

WHDC Grant Award Recipients

2014.C2

|  |  |          |  |  |  |
|--|--|----------|--|--|--|
| Community Impact                               | To support Education for Success: A Holistic Approach to Learning and Wellness for Youth and Adults empowering them to gain postsecondary education and living-wage jobs. Programs will provide tutoring, mentoring, conflict resolution, and arts education to help youth succeed in school . TASC, Spanish TASC, ESOL, College Transition and CUNY Assessment, Job Readiness/Placement Wellness/health services will also be provided. | $36,317 | Sonia Reese,Executive Director                   | sh18@columbia.org212-854-5959                             | 2980 Broadway105 Earl Hall,MC 2010NY, NY 10025 |
| Doing Art Together                             | To support My Passport to the Arts (including STEAM & Parent Workshops), a yearlong, hands-on ABE and STEAM initiatives led by DAT's Teaching Artists in 3 CD 9 Schools.   | $34,553 | Elleza Kelley  | elleza@doingarttog.ether.org(212) 245-8132     | 127 West127th StreetNY, NY 10027                   |
| Emerging Leaders in Technology and Engineering | ELITE Harlem Expansion – To support the expansion of programming in Harlem to provides eleven credit-bearing science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) courses, after school programming, and summer programming to MCD9 middle and high school students at Frederick Douglass Academy and Renaissance Leadership Academy.   | $33,215 | Chelsey Roebuck,President                        | Chelsey@elite-education.org215-498-8887         | 275 Malcolm XBlvd.New York, NY10027            |
| Global Language Project                        | West Harlem Foreign Language and Career Readiness Programs – To support; the launching of a new Mandarin language program at Teachers College Community School in MCD9; to help fund GLP's new Spanish language and after school Mandarin programs at P.S. 368 in MCD9; to re-launch its program for alumni out of M.S. 324.   | $29,807 | Angela Jackson,Founder andExecutive Director | info@globallanguageproject.org(646) 657-8075 | 1501Broadway,Suite 12079NY, NY 10036           |
| Hale House Center                              | To support the Mother Hale Learning Center which provides full- and part-time care to children ages 6 weeks to 5 years. The center meets a tremendous need in Harlem by offering high-quality childcare and early childhood education to a socio-economically diverse population preparing each child for success in Kindergarten and beyond.  | $17,589 | Trent Pheifer  | tpheifer@halehouse.org212-663-0700                   | 152 West122nd StreetNY, NY 10027                   |
| New York Math Academy and Coaching Services    | To support NYMA's Academic After School and College Prep Program , which provides individually tailored instruction to low income underprivileged K-12 students' that builds their confidence and achieves academic success. Academic enrichment activities will improve students math and literacy skills enabling them to pass NYS standardized ELA &amp; Math, Regents, SAT, SSAT, TACHS, SHSAT, TASC/GED, and CUNY Admission tests.  | $24,520 | François Nzi, Co-Founder/CEO                     | support@nymacs.org212-281-6770                           | 2326 AdamClayton PowellJr. BlvdNY, NY 10030    |
| Project Brownstone                             | The Textbook Stipend Project – Funding will help leverage needed stipends to underserved MCD9 youth to purchase textbooks and supplies . These subsidies will be integral to the matriculation process for students from low-income families who are transitioning to college.   | $6,578  | Earl Davis,Executive Director                    | info@projectbrownstone.org212-694-3526           | 133 West 131StreetNY, NY 10027                     |
| Riverside Language Program                     | To support Help New Americans Find Their Voices , an intensive, 25 hour weekly English classes program . MCD9 residents who do not speak English as their first, or even second language, desperately need English to find jobs, attend college, and navigate life in New York City. RLP will give students support not only in language   | $37,675 | Phyllis BermanExecutive Director                 | info@riversidelanguage.org212-662-3200           | 490 RiversideDriveNY, NY 10027                     |

WHDC Grant Award Recipients

2014.C2

|   |   |              |   |  |   |
|---|---|--------------|---|--|---|
|   | learning, but with counseling as well.  |              |   |  |   |
| Sports & Arts in Schools Foundation   | Access to After School @ Teachers College Community School – To support after-school activities at Teachers College Community School. Designed by a parent committee based on feedback from the entire parent body, the proposed program is a rich mix of STEM, wellness, literacy and recreational activities . It will serve approximately 125 K-3rd grade students.  | $33,716     | James O'Neill,CEO                         | info@sasfny.org347-417-8160                                       | 58-12 Queens BoulevardSuite 1, NY, NY 11377 |
| The Moriah Institute Inc.   | To support Life Planning and Peer Leader Training components of The Rites of Passage Program for Youth , a program that helps teens transition to adulthood . Programming includes workshops in: academic assessment, re-envisioning life goals, tutoring, college application and essay writing, and a college trip . Peer Leader training includes workshops on making choices, integrity, working in community, and learning to lead. | $6,245      | Mariah Britton                                | mbritton@themoriah-instituteny.org845-623-8121 | 137 Grotke Road Chestnut Ridge NY, NY 10977     |
| YMCA of Greater New York  | The Harlem YMCA Summer Enrichment &amp; Academic or Afterschool Program will offer a Summer Enrichment &amp; Academic Program/ Afterschool Program to MCD9 youth between the ages of 3 - 12 years old.  | $26,809     | Tiffeny Forrest,Executive Director        | tforrest@ymcanyc.org212-912-2111                             | 180 West 135th StreetNY, NY 10030           |
| Workforce &amp; Economic DevelopmentA total of $250,589 for 8 organizations | Project Description   | Award Amount | Contact Person                                | Email/Phone  | Address   |
| East Harlem Employment Services, Inc. (STRIVE)  | West Harlem Employment Program - To support the partnership between STRIVE and the Harlem Children's Zone (HCZ) in providing training and employment services to MCD9 residents who have enrolled in HCZ's programs. This partnership will form the basis of a pilot that will test the potential for a Harlem-wide initiative to engage local non-profits and employers in a project to train and hire local residents.                        | $33,929     | Ellen Hartwell Blais, Director of Development | ehartwell@striveinternational.org212.360.1100   | 240 East 123rd Street 3rd FloorNY, NY 10035 |
| Graham Windham  | To support the creation of a Technology Learning Center at the Manhattanville Public Housing Community Center to increase the level of access and knowledge of career and education opportunities . GW will offer free computer and Internet access to the community and classes in computer/Internet basics and MS Office Certification (Word, Excel, and PowerPoint).   | $13,655     | Jess Dannhauser,President & CEO           | dannhauserj@graham-windham.org212-529-6445 x301    | 423 W 127th St,New York, NY 10027           |
| Madison Strategies Group  | Westside Employs the Westside – To engage West Harlem partners in a new collaborative effort to train and place local residents into quality employment opportunities . The partnership includes Madison Strategies Group, Westside Campaign Against Hunger, Franciscan Community Center, and Lincoln Sq. Neighborhood Center.  | $32,658     | Kristin J. Morse,Executive Director       | kmorse@madisonstrategies.org917-254-4371             | 1250 Broadway,Suite 810NY, NY 10025     |
|   |   |              |   |  |   |

WHDC Grant Award Recipients

2014.C2

|                                      |  |          |   |  |   |
|--------------------------------------|--|----------|---|--|---|
| Maysles Institute                    | To support Maysles Documentary Center Cinema Management Program , a Cinema Arts & Management Training program that offers marketable job training skills in film production, film exhibition, and cinema house management. The program will provide MCD9 residents with practical, hands-on training and paid internships at a working cinema and production facility , ultimately preparing them for entry-level positions in various media-related industries.             | $26,310 | Erika Dilday,Executive Director           | erika@mayslesinstitute.org212-537-6843         | 343 Lenox AveNY, NY 10027                         |
| Network Support Services, Inc.       | Funding will support the expansion of Network in the Community programming at 3 sites in Harlem, which currently serves 350 parolees a year. Network's 3-year recidivism rate is 8% compared to 40% in NYS and 75% across the U.S. MCD9 residents will have access to therapeutic/re-entry services which will aid in successful community reintegration .   | $38,092 | Anne J. Williams,Executive Director       | awilliams@networkssi.org , 845-247-3943/347-820-9225 | 555 Bergen AveBronx, New York10455-1368       |
| New York Women's Chamber of Commerce | To support the Latino Microenterprise Development Program , a one stop shop that provides bilingual (English and Spanish) business development education and one-on-one business assistance to start up and existing disadvantaged Latinos and Latina entrepreneurs and self-employed individuals in CD9.  | $32,472 | Quenia Abreu,President                    | gabreu@nywcc.org212-491-9460                             | 1524 Amsterdam Ave.NY, NY 10031                   |
| Nontraditional Employment for Women  | Nontraditional Employment for Women will increase recruitment, training and job placement efforts of MCD9 women for entry level positions in the skilled construction & related trades. NEW's initiative will create access to secure jobs that are at a living wage & are inclusive of essential benefits.  | $34,761 | Kathleen Culhane,Executive Vice President | kculhane@new-nyc.org646-257-5205                     | 243 W. 20th StNY, NY 10011                        |
| The City College of New York (CCNY)  | City College of New York (CCNY) Workforce / Economic Development Initiative - CCNY Continuing and Professional Studies will provide Certificate Training and Job Placement in the occupations of Food Service Management, Construction Management (with Turner Construction), Electronic Health Records Specialist, and Certified Nursing Assistant . Eligible students from MCD9 will receive scholarships with WHDC paying 50% of the costs and CCNY paying the remainder. | $38,712 | Darwin Davis,Interim Program Director     | ddavis2@ccny.cuny.edu212-650-7047                   | 160 Convent Avenue Shepard Hall, Rm 2NY, NY 10031 |