

Organization/Year Founded (based in CD9-West Harlem)
Arts & Culture Total Orgs: 29 for $575,750	Project Description	Award Amount	Contact Person	Phone/Email	Address
Centro Civico Cultural Dominicano /1962	To expand the Arts, Crafts and Health Fair to have more than 800 residents and community members in attendance, provide 40 CD9 West Harlem women with free mammograms. Twenty vendors from CD9 West Harlem will sell and showcase their products and another five to ten artists will perform on the sidewalk.	$12,000	Ms. Dorca Torres	212.234.9577/ diojesus77@ yahoo.com	150 Convent Avenue NY, NY 10031
Chashama/1995	To expand the organization's CD9 West Harlem presence by collaborating with Janus Management for additional 10,000 square feet of space that can accommodate: studio and gallery areas , community meeting areas, youth programs; and performance space open to residents of West Harlem, with expectations of art driving economic development in the surrounding neighborhoods. Expand the exposure of at least 15 CD 9 West Harlem artists by devoting shows to them and set aside funds for re-grants to at least 10 CD9 West Harlem artists for exhibitions.	$13,500	Mr. Janusz Jaworski	212.391.8151 ext.26/janusz@ chashama.org	201 E. 42 nd Street Suite 3225-29 NY, NY 10017
City College 21st Century Foundation, The/1997	Joining Forces: Living Art on the Hill is a public art installation of works, which will be installed for three months on the North Academic Plaza at Amsterdam Avenue near 137th Street and will include artists' talks and tours. This will act as a bridge between the college and the community. Art from the public will be included and there will be a special exhibition at Aaron Davis Hall. More than 50 artists from 14 arts organizations will be involved. Galleries and arts organizations in West Harlem will be included.	$9,000	Ms. Myrah Brown Green	212.650.5361/ mbgreen@ccny.cuny.ed u	160 Convent Avenue NY, NY 10031
Classical Theatre of Harlem, The/1999	Six to eight volunteers will canvass and recruit at least 50 students aged 12-17, from Grant and Manhattanville housing. The students will participate in a theater program for themselves, parents, and neighbors. They will be prepared for future employment in the theatre through learning videography, photography and social media.	$40,000	Mr. Ty Jones	347.688.6304/ cth2011@gmail.com	566 W. 159 th Street Suite 44 NY, NY 10032
Creative Arts Workshop for Kids/ 1992	To employ about 30 CD9 West Harlem youth for about three hours per day, three days per week, for two 10-12 week semesters between September and June to create large-scale artwork within West Harlem (including Riverbank State Park, DASNY construction site barriers, and locations provided by project partner, HCDC), teaching participants job, teamwork, social and leadership skills.	$20,000	Mr. Brian Ricklin	917.697.2352/ brianricklin@ caw4kids.org	520 Eighth Ave. Suite 201A NY, NY 10018
Dance Iquail Inc./2007	To provide 60 hours of rehearsal time in choreography with Ja-Malik and Company's 9 dancers, provide two free showings to 75 CD9-WH students, three performances at HSA for 375 students with discounted tickets, and create arts opportunities for residents of CD9 West Harlem. Exposing youth to the arts, mentoring emerging and professional artists through the development of a new performance repertory at several local venues, mentoring a local choreographer, and holding performances/outreach programs for local schools.	$21,250	Mr. Iquail Shaheed	646.457.7484/ iquail@danceiquail.org	PO Box 559 NY, NY 10030

Dance Theatre of Harlem/1969	Harlem Dance Works 3.0, Community Building Through Audience Engagement, will provide educational activities in the organization's studios and around the neighborhood as well as unique performances at street corners, libraries, parks, houses of worship and public schools by involving neighborhood artists in the in-house and neighborhood performances. At least 300 people from the CD9 West Harlem community will be exposed to and benefit from the works of DTH.	$45,000	Mr. Rodney Trapp	212.690.2800 ext. 402/ rtrapp@dancetheatreofharlem.org	466 W. 152nd Street NY, NY 10031
Dances for a Variable Population/2005	West Harlem Moves will bring dance workshops, instruction and free public performances to people of all ages and abilities in senior centers and public places throughout CD9 West Harlem. Included will be four free performance workshops at four local senior centers; a free 28-week sequential dance workshop at the George Bruce Library; and a summer-long residency at West Harlem Piers Park. More than 750 people, including 100 seniors will benefit.	$12,750	Ms. Naomi Goldberg Haas	347.683.2691/ naomigoldberg@mac.com	560 Riverside Dr. #9K NY, NY 10027
Early Music Foundation/1974	"Early Music in West Harlem" will provide a festival of music from the 11th through 18th centuries, bringing this seldom performed music to the community, and citywide audiences to CD9 West Harlem venues. Reduced ticket prices will be offered to seniors in the community. Sites to be considered for performances will include: Bloomingdale House of Music, Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Corpus Christi Church, Church of Notre Dame, Great Hall, Harlem Stage Gatehouse, Old Broadway Synagogue, Riverside Theatre and Union Theological Seminary Chapel. At least 250 residents of CD-9 West Harlem will benefit.	$8,625	Mr. Frederick Renz	212.749.6600/ f.renz@earlymusicny.org	10 W. 68th Street NY, NY 10023
GreenGurl Productions/2008	"Singing Wid a Sword in Ma Han" is a docudrama about a slave family's escape to freedom. It provides an education of the African-American experience and entertainment with talkback sessions after performances. The play will be performed at three CD9 West Harlem libraries for 70 to -125 audiences at each of Morningside Heights Library, George Bruce Library and Hamilton Grange Library.	$8,000	Ms. Vienna Carroll	212.368.4586/ viennacarroll@gmail.com	401 W. 148th Street #2A NY, NY 10031
Harlem Arts Festival/2010	To support a two-day annual multidisciplinary arts festival in Marcus Garvey Park in June 2013 that will be free and open to the public, drawing at least 600 people. The event will showcase emerging and established Harlem-based and affiliated performers and artists as well as give community businesses and merchants a chance to be vendors at the festival. CD9 West Harlem artists and vendors will be featured and a site in CD 9 West Harlem will be considered either as a satellite or for future festivals.	$5,500	Mr. Neal Ludevig	914.843.2747/ neal@harlemartsfestival.com	42 W. 130th Street #3 NY, NY 10037
Harlem Chamber Players, The/2008	To fund seven high quality classical music concerts from May 1, 2013 to April 30, 2014; offer free tickets to senior centers/other social-cultural institutions in Harlem; offer discounted tickets to schools such as Harlem School of the Arts, Harlem Children's Zone, Harbor Conservatory for the Performing Arts, and Opus 118 Harlem School of Music, with priority to CD9 West Harlem residents; At least 250 residents of CD-9 West Harlem will benefit from exposure to chamber music during the year.	$12,750	Ms. Liz Player	917.744.6948/ lizplayer@gmail.com	190 Claremont Ave. #25 NY, NY 10027
Harlem Opera Theatre/2001	The 2013 season will offer operatic performance emphasizing the African-American experience and education. Exceptional talent within the community will be promoted. The season will include a competition for young adult singers and an education component in CD9 West Harlem schools. Planned four performances from April to June will include a semifinal at Convent Avenue Baptist Church and finals at the Apollo	$10,125	Ms. Carol Brown	718.775.6280/ Harlemopera theater@gmail.com	425 W. 144th Street NY, NY 10031

	Sound Stage. Expect at least 30 CD9 West Harlem youth will be involved.
Harlem School of the Arts/1964	To provide student financial aid and scholarships for 50 CD9 West Harlem students and families for exposure and training in music, dance, theater, visual arts and musical theater . Continue outreach to community to avail itself of the facilities of HAS with an overall goal of increasing enrollment from 742 to 800 students.	$45,000	Ms. Yvette Campbell	212.926.4100/ ycampbell@ hsanyc.org	645 Saint Nicholas Ave. NY, NY 10030
Harlem Stage/Aaron Davis Hall /1983	To create and implement a special membership offer to CD9 residents that currently exist in our database (approximately 3,700) offering a $25 membership (50% discount); research and create promotional materials designed to target the greater CD9 community of the CD9 MyHarlemStage Membership that will begin in the next period (fall 2013). To strengthen the arts education program in A. Philip Randolph H.S. and conduct an evaluation of current programs in three additional core schools to determine how to strengthen and expand moving into the next period (FY14). Expect overall benefits to reach at least 250 individuals.	$42,500	Mr. James King	212.281.9240 ext. 32/jking@ harlemstage.org	150 Convent Ave. NY, NY 10031
Jazzmobile/1965	To help support the organization's 25 West Harlem SUMMERFEST concerts that would provide employment for 200 underemployed musicians (including those in West Harlem), provide live jazz performances at several West Harlem locations (Grant's Tomb, Riverbank State Park, Dinosaur BBQ, City College and others) that will attract at least 2,500 CD 9 West Harlem residents during July and August. Provide job opportunities for 5 West Harlem jazz artists.	$40,000	Ms. Robin Bell-Stevens	212.866.4900/ rbellstevens@ jazzmobile.org	154 W. 127 th Street NY, NY 10027
Liberation Theatre Company/2009	To put on five performances of The Silver Thread , a play about a gynecologist who pioneered a surgical procedure on slave women, for at least 300 middle and high school youth at Harlem School of the Arts, with the majority to come from CD9 West Harlem. Provide teachers with a lesson plan and allow a talkback with the playwright and performers.	$6,500	Ms. Sandra A. Daley-Sharif	212.289.2529/ info@liberation theatrecompany.org	1855 Adam Clayton Powell Jr. Blvd. NY, NY 10026
Mama Foundation for the Arts/1998	Gospel for Teens will provide 40 CD9 West Harlem low-income teens aged 13-19 with the opportunity to participate in the youth choir program on Fridays and Saturdays for 12 weeks, culminating in performances. The program is free and provides transportation costs and a small stipend.	$40,000	Ms. Knoelle Higginson	212.280.1045/ KnoelleHigginson@gmail .com	149 W. 126 th Street NY, NY 10027
Maysles Institute/2005	This project is a one-year training program with an emphasis on recruiting 24 CD9 West Harlem residents in Cinema Arts and Management Program that will equip participants with skills in film production, film exhibition, and cinema house management by providing hands-on training and experience in a working cinema and production facility in Harlem, and preparing participants for entry-level positions at film companies, events, music venues, and theaters.	$40,000	Ms. Erika Dilday	212.537.6843/ erika@maysles institute.org	343 Lenox Ave. NY, NY 10027
National Black Touring Circuit/1976	To provide outreach to schools, churches and community organizations in West Harlem with free tickets for at least 40 CD9 West Harlem school youth children to attend the week-long Black History Month Play Project .	$9,375	Mr. Woodie King Jr.	212.353.1176/ natblktc@ aol.com	790 Riverside Drive #3 NY, NY10032
New Heritage Repertory Theatre/1997	To provide intensive, year-round youth leadership, performing arts training and experiences, academic support and college and career exploration for 40 CD9 West Harlem youth, aged 12 to 19.	$12,000	Ms. Menen Hailu	212.926.4516/ menen@impactreptheat re.org	253 W. 138 th Street NY, NY 10030

New York African Chorus Ensemble/2004	To expand the organization's initiative of assisting at least 10 artists living in CD9 West Harlem to develop their business skills and gain exposure in building up their client base and organize a festival for the artists to showcase their work at Jackie Robinson Park.	$12,000	Ms. Joyce Adewumi	212.862.4858/ joyce@nyafricanensemble.com	515 W. 151 st Street Suite 2W NY, NY 10031
NYC Kidsfest/1986	To create a short documentary for NYC Kidsfest, a free, multicultural family festival, featuring at least 30 CD9 West Harlem Youth in Morningside Park with a mission to bring together and enrich the quality of life of the diverse communities of West Harlem through a daylong celebration of the performing arts involving West Harlem artists and incorporating local schools.	$6,500	Ms. Jessica Chornesky	646.683.2454/ jessica@nyckidsfest.org	61 Lenox Ave. #5A NY, NY 10026
Snorks and Pins Productions/2009	To use theatrical interpretation for oral history featuring Manhattanville residents to explore experiences of the loss of sense of community which can occur for those residents as they experience the rapid changes in the neighborhood from the Columbia expansion, rising costs of rent, departures of longtime residents, and the arrival of new cultural groups. At least 40 individuals will be involved in sharing their views.	$5,000	Ms. Gillian Riley	646.559.0832/ snorksandpins@gmail.com	525 W. 133 rd Street #6D NY, NY 10027
SoHarlem Creative Outlet/2010	The Cultural Workforce Program will increase the number of Master Artisans who will train at least 20 CD9 West Harlem formerly incarcerated women in the skills needed to obtain jobs in cultural tourism, and the manufacture of creative consumable products, textiles, fabrics, and jewelry making.	$20,000	Ms. Janet Rodriguez	212.222.2792/ jr.soharlem@gmail.com	1361 Amsterdam Ave. Suite 340 NY, NY 10027
Take Wing and Soar Productions/2003	To give CD9 West Harlem access to professional theatre , including festivals of Shakespeare and August Wilson plays. Program will involve at least 20 artists from CD 9 West Harlem artists and draw at least 1,500 patrons whose visits to West Harlem would help improve its economy and employment.	$13,500	Ms. Debra Ann Byrd	212.696.6575/ info@takewingandsoar.org	45 Tiemann Place #3G NY, NY 10027
Unveiled Unlocked: Bare Elements/2001	To create five video-taped talk show sessions focusing on alopecia/stress, cancer/lupus, lifestyle choices , historical rituals, and bare-headed men and women. Event will be held at Manhattanville Community Center in front of a live audience drawn from CD9 West Harem that would be no less than 100 in total.	$8,625	Ms. Aleathia Brown	646.345.2851/ aleathiab@msn.com	229 W. 135 th St NY, NY 10030
Washington Heights-Inwood Coalition/1978	To provide arts and intensive tutoring program for 60 elementary school students who live in CD9 West Harlem and attend P.S. 28, an enhancement of the afterschool center that the organization has maintained at that school since 2005. Classes will include art, music and dance class for 45 minutes a week for 35 weeks.	$40,000	Mr. John Swauger	212.781.6722/ whic.mail@verizon.net	652 W. 187 th Street NY, NY 10033
Young Empowered Artists of Harlem (Y.E.A.H.)/2008	To organize a youth visual arts initiative involving at least 20 youth from CD9 West Harlem with the goal of creating public art in West Harlem within a youth education initiative for 2 three-month sessions where students will create an art project on pertinent topics on history, social issues, technology, cultural differences, the humanities and the sciences.	$16,250	Mr. Roy Secord	347.313.5174 / SecordRW@aol.com	229 W. 135 th St NY, NY 10030
Community Facilities Total Orgs: 13 for $279,000	Project Description	Award Amount	Contact Person	Phone/Email	Address
African Services Committee/1981	To expand the organization's existing diagnostic and screening facilities to meet rising chronic and infectious disease testing needs of the community and assist at least 10 new patients a week who are residents of CD9 West Harlem. Use outcomes to develop	$45,000	Mr. Demetri Blanas	347.255.9454/ demetri.blanas@mssm.edu	429 W.127 th Street NY, NY 10027

	strategies for a future West Harlem Health Center.
Brothers in Recovery/1988	To hold a men's retreat, health and educational workshops, adult self-defense classes and a youth arts/mentorship program for 170 participants to include 10-15 seniors who are CD9 West Harlem residents, encouraging healthy behavior and showing participants how to identify and avoid threatening behavior.	$16,250	Mr. Qadir Perez	646.671.4758/ Aqmonsur@ yahoo.com	115 Edgecombe Ave. NY, NY 10031
Carry on Community Development Corp/2011	To provide workshops on end-stage renal failure to 125 participants and support a mini health clinic in the lower area of Convent Avenue Baptist Church in CD9-WH.	$12,000	Mr. Marrin Wiggins	201.889.5711/ Lexusmow1@verizon.net	425 W. 144 th Street 2 nd Fl NY, NY 10031
Full Circle Life Enrichment Center/2003	To recruit at least 100 youth to address increasing gang violence in two NYCHA housing units, Manhattanville and Grant, and the surrounding communities through education, mentoring, leadership development, and job skills that help to build healthy support networks.	$40,000	Ms. Darcel Dillard	914.906.4757/ enrichmentlife@aol.com	2429 East Tremont Ave. Bronx, NY 10461
Harlem Seeds/2010	Healthy-in-My Neighborhood will teach at least 35 participants, aged 7 to 17 years, once a month through culinary, nutrition and gardening education to develop healthy eating and a healthy living mindset in an effort to combat childhood obesity rampant in the area. The project will also include a senior program at West Harlem senior centers. Program site will be P.S. 153.	$32,500	Ms. Stephanie Mack	917.731.4584/ smack@harlem seeds.org	311 W. 137 th Street NY, NY 10030
Ice Hockey in Harlem/1987	To provide at least 100 students with hockey lessons at Lasker Rink in Central Park and to provide half of that number with classroom activities , including mentoring and college readiness. At least 30 of the students will be from CD9 West Harlem.	$6,250	Mr. Brad Preston	212.722.0044/ bradp@icehockeyinharlem.org	1460 Broadway Room 04-06 NY, NY 10036
Liforce in Later Years/2009	To sponsor Love-an-Elder Day 2013 , an effort to promote acts of kindness, volunteerism and improved sense of community for older Morningside Heights seniors, targeting 50 Morningside Village seniors.	$12,000	Ms. Irene Zola	917.775.1199/ irenezola@ L-i-L-Y.org	P.O. Box 250402 NY, NY 10025
Manhattan Legal Services/1968	The West Harlem Youth Legal Advocacy Project will address the growing number of barriers to success faced by West Harlem youth , particularly youth of color, by providing essential legal services in the areas of education, immigration, employment, and consumer law to 60 CD9-WH youth serviced in the first year.	$40,000	Ms. Peggy Earisman	646.442.3142/ pearisman@ mls.ls-nyc.org	1 W. 125 th Street 2 nd Fl NY, NY 10027
New York City Mission Society/1812	To expand the Harlem Cure Violence Initiative to work with at least 40 young people aged 14-24 from CD9 West Harlem (priority to Grant and Manhattanville housing) who are at a high risk of shooting or being shot through mediation, case management, youth development activities, restorative justice programming, and mental health services.	$30,000	Ms. María Orenge	212.674.3500 ext. 205/ morengo@nycmissionso ciety.org	105 E. 22 nd Street 6 th Fl NY, NY 10010
Northern Manhattan Coalition for Immigrant Rights/1982	To assist 100 immigrants of CD9 West Harlem by identifying and providing a range of benefits that include immigration, naturalization, and stabilization of lives.	$20,000	Ms. Almirca Santiago	212.0781.0355/ asantiago@nmcir.org	665 W. 182 nd Street Ground Fl NY, NY 10033
Urban Yoga Foundation/2007	The program will provide a weekly yoga class that includes art, music and educational games for at least 30 CD9 West Harlem students for the school year and in the summer at one public school in West Harlem in an effort to increase the participants' health and their ability to focus.	$9,750	Ms. Ghylian Bell	347.735.4280/ ghylian yoga@ yahoo.com	239 W. 139 th St. NY, NY 10030

Wendy Hilliard Foundation/1996	The Community Gymnastics Program is a 32-week program that will teach gymnastics to at least 30 new CD9 West Harlem participants at Riverbank State Park. The program includes a six-week summer intensive program; all discounted or administered via scholarships.	$9,750	Ms. Raby Gueye	212.316.0315/ raby@wendyhilliardfoun dation.org	550 W. 155 th Street NY, NY 10032
Women in the Black/1988	To organize a series of workshops for at least 20 CD9 West Harlem women on skills and resources to start, build, lead and grow profitable small businesses.	$5,500	Ms. Princess Jenkins	646.388.0434/ harrietrosebud@aol.com	34 E. 125 th Street NY, NY 10035
Education Total Orgs: 19 for $439,750	Project Description	Award Amount	Contact Person	Phone/Email	Address
America Scores New York/2001	The " Literacy in Action in West Harlem " project (a program in CD9-WH since 2001) will provide year-round education through soccer activities for at least 30 third to fifth graders in West Harlem who are dealing with low literacy, low school engagement and obesity through extracurricular soccer and academic enrichment, including events such as soccer games, poetry slams, and community service.	$10,125	Mr. Robert Uvanovic	646.660.0404/ ruvanovic@ americascor es.org	520 Eighth Ave. Suite 201C NY, NY 10018
Boys & Girls Club of Harlem/1980	The Project Learn and First Bloom (programs at Manhattanville Clubhouse and ML Wilson Clubhouse) provides homework, tutoring, high-yield learning activities, parent involvement, school collaboration, and incentives to at least 50 youth of 6-18 years who are residents of CD9 West Harlem.	$22,500	Ms. Edith Massiah	212.283.6770/ edmassiah@ harlembgc.org	425 W. 144 th Street 5 th Fl NY, NY 10031
Brotherhood/Sister Sol, The/1995	The After School Program (ASP) and the Afterschool Teen Enrichment Program (ASTEP) will provide academic support, enrichment activities -gardening, mentoring, martial arts, and healthy meals for 40 CD9 West Harlem youth of ages 7- 18 years. Programs will include: arts education- theatre, dance, voice lyricism and mass media. There will be 35 intensive workshops/outings during the academic year as well as an art day camp during the summer.	$40,000	Ms. Neka Harrison	212.283.7044/ nh@brotherhood- sistersol.org	512 W. 143 rd Street NY, NY 10031
College and Community Fellowship/2000	The Academic Success Program is an educational and career development support to formerly incarcerated women that will offer counseling, tutoring, mentoring, scholarships, and financial literacy, and job placement activities to at least 40 residents of CD9 West Harlem.	$45,000	Ms. Maria Santangelo	646.380.7773/ msantangelo@colle gean dcommunity.org	475 Riverside Dr. Suite 1626 NY, NY 10115
Deep Dish T.V. Network/1986	Introduce at least 30 CD9 West Harlem youth to the Waves of Change project , a global interactive map and blog for community media around the world. Activities will include: paid internships, skill building on global research, web design, blog publishing, map building, and web statistic monitoring techniques.	$22,500	Ms. DeeDee Halleck	845.594.4871/ deedeehalleck@gm ail.co m	175 Claremont Ave. #45 NY, NY 10027
Def Dance Jam Workshop/1994	The " Five Star Outreach " project will include programs for the special needs population through an "edutainment" curriculum incorporating performing arts, academics, advocacy, and cultural services. Will recruit at least 20 participants from CD9 West Harlem.	$12,000	Ms. Carol Aziza Reid	212.694.0477/ ddjwaziza@ aol.com	511 W. 151 st Street Suite C1 NY, NY 10031
Ecumenical Community Development Organization (ECDO)/1983	The Employment Services and Computer Lab Project will include activities in Internet based job search, skill building services, educational development, and referrals to improve employment options with follow-up support services for at least 40 participants from CD9 West Harlem.	$40,000	Ms. Deborah Renee Smith	212.678.0037/ dsmith@ecdo. org	443 W. 125 th St. NY, NY 10027

Figure Skating in Harlem/1997	A figure skating and educational development program for girls . Grant Activities: Implementation of a new writing initiative, additional classes and individualized tutoring 5 days/week. Super Skating opportunity on Sundays – at least 25 participants to come from CD9-West Harlem.	$21,250	Ms. Sharon Cohen	646.698.3440/ sharon@figureskatinginharlem.org	361 W. 125 th St. 2 nd Fl NY, NY 10027
Future Giants Corporation/2002	An SAT and College preparation program will provide courses and college admission counseling twice a week and some Saturdays to at least 40 CD9-WH High School Juniors using instructors from Teacher's College and interns from Columbia University's Institute of Urban and Minority Education at Teachers College; provide counseling on college application/acceptance process	$40,000	Mr. RD Snyder	646.288.9887/ info@futuregiants.org	2090 Adam Clayton Blvd. Suite 800 NY, NY 10030
Hale House Center/1969	Early Childhood Services for the Mother Hale Learning Center. To support a tuition-discount program to give up to 100% discounts to 10 CD9-West Harlem families in need.	$16,250	Ms. Lindsay Gebhart	212.531.5433/ lgebhart@halehouse.org	152 W. 122 nd St. NY, NY 10027
Harlem Biennale/2010	The " My Harlem " educational program will provide afterschool and Summer activities in art, training in visual literacy, digital media, social skills and the creation and sharing stories through public exhibitions. Program to be located in CD9 West Harlem for about 30 participants.	$21,250	Mr. Edward Hillel	212.666.8771/ edward@harlembiennale.org	120 W. 121 st St. NY, NY 10027
Harlem Book Fair/1999	Cool Boyz Read program to offer weekly, in-school, reading enhancement programs for at least 30 third and fourth grade male students at one West Harlem public school.	$12,000	Mr. Max Rodriguez	914.231.6778/ mrod@qbr.com	270 W. 96 th Street NY, NY 10025
Harlem Education Activities Fund (HEAF)/1989	The HEAF Continuum program is an 11-year sequential program beginning in 6th grade through completion of an undergraduate degree. Activities will include providing 25 students CD9-West Harlem youth with afterschool, Saturday and summer educational programs, including robotics, college readiness, strategic business planning course and emotional support.	$16,875	Mr. Matthew Deen	212.663.9732/ mdeen@heaf.org	2090 Seventh Ave. 10 th Fl NY, NY 11216
Moriah Institute, The/2004	The Rites of Passage program is a 7-month mentor program to help adolescents in grades 10 through 12 to make the transition into young adulthood. At least 10 Youth from CD9 West Harlem will be engaged in community service, college trips, overnight intensives, retreats and physically-challenging activities to help teens grapple with personal obstacles, become clearer about how their choices affect their progress, and build stronger bonds with caring adults and with each other.	$6,750	Ms. Mariah Britton	845.623.8121/ mbritton@themoriahinstuteny.org	137 Grotke Road Chestnut Ridge, NY 10977
Morningside Area Alliance/1947	The " Small Awards Big Impact " (SABI) aims to cultivate, screen, fund, and report on the impact of new learning opportunities and projects in 16 CD9-WH public schools that will culminate in an Awards Event in March 2014 to recognize teachers. SABI is estimated to positively impact at least 700 students downstream.	$12,000	Ms. Jennifer Beisser	212.749.1570/ jennifer.beisser@morningsidealliance.org	90 Morning Side Drive Suite 1A NY, NY 10027
New York City Urban Debate League/2012	The activities of the West Harlem Summer Debate Institute will include: a week long training of students, parents, teachers, administrators and community volunteers in competitive debate; monthly workshops during school year to continue training and learning; two CD9-WH debate tournaments at the end of each academic semester; and a Championship Award Ceremony at the end of year. At least 20 students from CD9-WH will be involved.	$10,125	Mr. Erik Fogel	917.455.1079/ eriktheteacher@hotmail.com	3224 Grand Concourse #F52 NY, NY 10458

Pelham Fritz Basketball League Scholarship Fund/2006	An educational and athletic scholarship initiative to assist in supporting scholarships in the amount of $1,350 for two years of college to six CD9 West Harlem high school students who have been accepted to accredited college, or technical school; are involved in community service ; demonstrate a financial need; and live and attend a school in CD9 West Harlem.	$8,625	Mr. Melvin Pratt	212.860.1380/ thepblfund@aol.com	2225 Fifth Ave. #8B NY, NY 10037
Red Balloon Daycare Center/1972	To assist in providing at least 11 CD9 West Harlem low income families with financial assistance ranging from $300-1300 per month per child for early education childcare .	$42,500	Ms. Norma Brockman	212.663.9006/ rbdcc@aol.com	560 Riverside Drive NY, NY 10027
Reading Team. The/2000	The School Day Program at P.S. 36 (Earl Childhood Development) will provide skill building activities for pre-kindergartners, kindergartners and first graders during a twice weekly, one-hour session that is split into 30 minutes for small reading groups in the organization's Reading Center with Literacy Mentors and then 30 minutes in the Computer Center for the computer-based Waterford Early Reading Program for 300 students in total.	$40,000	Ms. Maureen Rover	212.280.2042/ maureen@readingteam.org	2090 Adam Clayton Powell Jr. Blvd. Suite 100 NY, NY 10027
Environment Total Orgs: 2 for $57,750	Project Description	Award Amount	Contact Person	Phone/Email	Address
Riverside Park Conservancy/1986	The North Park Initiative is an ongoing park improvement and community engagement project whose goal is to increase volunteer activity, engage the community in park stewardship, and improve overall maintenance and horticulture of neglected areas. Priority will be given to areas north of 120 th Street. At least 300 people will benefit from improved park and garden services in CD9 West Harlem.	$12,750	Ms. Lori Brittle	212.870.3070/ lori@riversideparknyc.org	475 Riverside Drive Suite 455 NY, NY 10115
West Harlem Environmental Action (WE ACT)/1988	To support the West Harlem Clean Heat Initiative , by training at least 35 CD9-WH representatives on the health and financial incentives of converting from dirty heating oil to cleaner energy alternatives . A West Harlem Clean Heat Council comprising 10 early adopters and innovators in the field of clean Heat will be formed.	$45,000	Ms. Milka Rodriguez	212.961.1000 ext. 313/milka@weact.org	1854 Amsterdam Ave. 2 nd Fl NY, NY 10031
Historic Preservation Total Orgs: 4 for $68,250	Project Description	Award Amount	Contact Person	Phone/Email	Address
American Performing Arts Collaborative/1997	The " Virtually Yours Harlem " cultural tourism initiative (a digital database chronicling Harlem history) will train and provide research and technical skill building opportunities for 10 CD9-WH High School youth through the production of a segment highlighting one or more institutions, organizations, scholars, and/or individuals currently residing in CD9-WH.	$12,750	Mr. George Faison	212.665.7716/mail@fais onfirehouse.org	6 Hancock Place NY, NY 10027
Morris-Jumel Mansion/1904	The "Contemporary Meets Colonial" exhibition series will host four exhibitions which will include the participation of CD9-WH artists and a series of workshops and talks by these artists, drawing upon the history of the mansion and its collections. CD9-WH artists will represent at least 40% of the participating artists. Some 300 people are expected to view the works.	$7,500	Mr. Carol Ward	212.923.8008/ education@morrisjumel.org	65 Jumel Terrace NY, NY 10032
Phelps Stokes /1911	The project will teach at least 10 CD9-WH students to express their vision of the world through journalism, produce oral history, and digital media projects , equip students with the skills to obtain internships in digital media fields, and help the students to start their own businesses.	$27,500	Mr. Melvin McCray	917.470.9880/ melvinmccray@gmail.com	1270 Broadway Suite 1005 NY, NY 10001

West Harlem Community Preservation Organization/1995	A preservation/heritage tourism coalition that will complete a survey and assessment of CD9 West Harlem historic sites and cultural resources including the creation of a map, guide and walking tours; the development of a Restaurant and Culture Discount Card ($5.00) that will offer discounts at participating businesses and art organizations in Harlem. At least 50 individuals and businesses in CD9-WH will benefit.	$21,250	Ms. Yuien Chin	917.583.4109/ hhwestharlemcpo@msn.com	502 W. 142 nd Street Ground Fl NY, NY 10031
Housing Total Orgs: 4 for $155,000	Project Description	Award Amount	Contact Person	Phone/Email	Address
Broadway Housing Communities/1983	The Sugar Hill Community Outreach and Engagement Project is an initiative to maximize housing and community benefits to West Harlem residents, including seniors living in walk-up buildings; to recruit and train bilingual staff to provide housing eligibility and application information to CD9 West Harlem residents; to maximize the benefit of housing opportunities at Sugar Hill for West Harlem residents, and to help with ensuring that at least 30 CD9 West Harlem residents will move into Sugar Hill affordable housing unit.	$45,000	Mr. Michael Palma	212.568.2030 ext. 206/mpalma@ broadwayhousing.org	583 Riverside Drive 7 th Fl NY, NY 10031
Harlem Congregations for Community Improvement/1986	A Resident Association Training and Development program that will provide referrals, training and technical assistance to CD9-WH residents in private and publicly owned buildings educating them on resident rights, responsibilities, and providing HPD procedural advice. At least 30 residents will be trained.	$27,500	Mr. Donald Mack	718.776.4389/ dmack@hcci.org	2854 Frederick Douglas Blvd. NY, NY 10039
Neighborhood Defender Service/1991	Direct Housing Defense Representation and Housing Clinics will help support one Housing Defense Attorney for one year to provide services in loss of housing as well and hold two clinics for Grant and Manhattanville residents about their rights, concerns and navigating NYCHA administrative processes. At least 50 tenants will be assisted within one year.	$40,000	Mr. Michael Smith	212.876.5500/ msmith@ndsny.org	317 Lenox Ave. NY, NY 10030
PA'LANTE Harlem/2008	The Homelessness Prevention Program will aim to build capacity to conduct and provide outreach, referral and legal services to CD9-WH residents via printed materials, workshops direct engagement with landlords of distressed buildings; collaborating with governmental agencies, non-profits and local charities and enhancing on-line resource center and social media presence. At least 50 tenants will be assisted within one year.	$42,500	Ms. Elsia Vasquez	212.491.2541/ Elsia.vasquez@palanteharlem.org	423 W. 127 th St. Suite A NY, NY 10027
Workforce & Economic Development Total Orgs: 12 for $402,625	Project Description	Award Amount	Contact Person	Phone/Email	Address
Central Harlem Senior Citizens' Centers/1971	To create an Employment Resource Center , at the organization's West 134th and 140th Street centers, aimed at helping at least 25 CD9 West Harlem seniors aged 55 and older to become re-employed or to stay employed. This organization will partner with WEP, FECS Health and Human Services, Easter Seals, AARP, WeCare, HANAC and the Urban League.	$15,000	Ms. Josephina Blackburn	212.926.4871/ jblackburn@chsc.org	34 W. 134 th Street Lower Level NY, NY 10037

Citizens Against Recidivism/1992	To help implement the Citizens Transitional Jobs Program at the Manhattanville Houses Community Center and help implement job readiness workshops for adult residents of Manhattanville Houses and the surrounding area. A minimum of 20 participants will be assisted.	$10,125	Mr. Mika'il DeVeaux	347.626.7233 Ext. 1/info@citizensinc.org	137-58 Thurston Street Springfield Gardens, NY 11413
Dominican Sunday/1995	To promote workforce development by developing a database that matches members to services and job opening leads. Teaching members how to network, assigning a career coach to aid in the job search, providing four to ten workshops per week and building a bridge between local employers and job seekers. Assist at least 30 CD9 West Harlem residents to find jobs.	$32,500	Mr. Miquel Taveras	212.0749.0781/info@dsinc.org	175 W. 107 th Street NY, NY 10025
East Harlem Employment Service (STRIVE)/1984	The West Harlem Skills Training Initiative will increase employment opportunities and wage earnings for 20 CD9 West Harlem residents who will graduate from STRIVE's Maintenance and Customer Service training programs and obtain industry-recognized credentials with a minimum of 60 percent placed at $9 to $10-per-hour jobs with a 75-percent retention for three months.	$42,500	Mr. Lawrence Jackson	646.335.0837/ljackson@striveinternational.org	240 E. 123 rd Street NY, NY 10035
Friends of the Children New York/2001	To provide an internship and skills workshops to high school youth involved in the organization's "Achievers" program, providing a stipend to participants who face the greatest number of risk factors. Internship services including stipends and will be provided to 20 high school age Achievers from CD 9 West Harlem. Eighty percent of participants will graduate from high school and 60% percent of graduates will be accepted into colleges.	$30,000	Ms. Yelena Meytes	212.865.6942/ymeytes@friendsofthechildrency.org	204a W. 115 th Street NY, NY 10026
Futuro Media Group/2010	To support youth education and career development for a two-day Careers in Media for Youth conference at the Harlem Commonwealth Center, partnering with Columbia University and Maysles Institute with seminars, training and opportunities to interact with multicultural media professionals. Fifty youth between ages 16 and 25, will attend, 50 percent will be youth of color with majority from CD9 West Harlem.	$40,000	Ms. Melanie La Rosa	646.571.1985/Melanie@futuromedia.org	336 W. 125 th Street 4 th Fl NY, NY 10027
Harlem Business Alliance/1980	The Back Office Support Initiative (BOSI) will hire a part-time marketing specialist to promote back office support and technical assistance services to at least 15 CD9 West Harlem small businesses, and support of a Loan Fund that will make low interest direct loans to CD9 West Harlem small businesses.	$42,500	Ms. Regina Smith	212.665.7010/rsmith@hbany.org	275 Lenox Ave. NY, NY 10027
Harlem Commonwealth Council/1967	The Arches Transformative Mentoring (ATM) Program and the Work Now! Workforce Initiative Pilot Project will provide six month mentoring program and job placement for 30 at risk young adults from CD9 West Harlem; Metro card and stipends will be provided to participants.	$42,500	Mr. Richard Martin	212.491.4429/zacheus@verizon.net	316 W. 125 th Street NY, NY 10027
New York Urban League/1919	The Employment and Career Services program will expand current services to equip at least 25 CD9 West Harlem residents with skills, education and workplace competency ; to support three career track programs that lead to jobs with livable wages/salaries.	$40,000	Ms. Sheronia Rogers	212.926.8000 ext.124/srogers@nyul.org	204 W. 136 th Street NY, NY 10011
New York Women's Chamber of Commerce/2002	The " West Harlem Virtual Incubator for Growth " project will deliver specialized training and technical assistance for at least 20 CD9 West Harlem minority- and women-owned small businesses and microenterprises, including construction, construction-related and other firms.	$45,000	Mr. Robert Izzo	212.491.9640 ext. 105/rizzo@nywcc.org	1524 Amsterdam Ave. NY, NY 10031

Nontraditional Employment for Women (NEW)/1978	Career development services for women in the skilled construction, utility, and maintenance trades. There will be two events to recruit and enroll 25 women from CD9 West Harlem four free core training programs (1. Blue Collar Prep, 2. NEW at Night, 3. ReNEW and 4. The NYCHA Resident Training Academy.)	$40,000	Ms. Kathy Culhane	646.257.5205/ kculhane@new-nyc.org	243 W. 20th Street NY, NY 10011
Workforce Outsource Services/2005	A technology media development lab for underserved youth will include skill building and career development in the mobile gaming and mobile business applications industry for 20 CD9 West Harlem youth.	$22,500	Ms. Pamela Leung	816.718.0063/ pan@wforce.org	475 Riverside Drive Suite 1372 NY, NY 10115