Wreath Interpretations

NYC Parks' 42nd Annual Wreath Interpretations Exhibition
Dec. 5, 2024 - Jan. 2, 2025

This juried exhibition features creative variations on the traditional holiday decoration in all varieties of materials and subjects. Artists are invited to commemorate the holiday season by handcrafting a whimsical wreath using inventive, unexpected objects. To submit your wreath according to the guidelines below. Due to space constraints not all applications can be accepted. Entrants will be notified no later than Friday, Nov. 8, 2024, about wreath selections. Send your entry soon!

Submission Deadline
No later than Sunday, Nov. 3, 2024
Late submissions will not be considered

Rules
Wreaths exhibited in or proposed for past Arsenal Gallery shows will not be considered. Wreaths will be hung from gallery molding, not mounted on the wall, so please incorporate loops (above the midpoint of your wreath) in your design. Wreaths must be engineered so that they hang properly against the wall.

To apply, please submit the following by e-mail to artandantiquities@parks.nyc.gov:

- Sketch or photograph of your design (wreath does not need to be complete).
- Brief written description, including exact dimensions and media/materials.
- Name, address, phone number and e-mail address.

Submitted materials will not be returned.
